What is VAWA and how does it apply to housing and rental assistance programs? The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. It also provides special housing protections, like emergency transfers to alternative rental units. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Why am I being asked to complete this form? The person asking you to complete this form is seeking VAWA protections from a housing provider or rental assistance provider. The provider of housing or rental assistance has asked or may ask the person to document this abuse, and this form may be used to evaluate the request for VAWA housing protections.

Who should fill out this form? An employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) who provided assistance to the program participant relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse.

How long do I have to fill out this form? Once a provider of housing or rental assistance requests documentation to support the program participants request for VAWA protections, the program participant must respond within 14 days. An extension may be requested, protections requested may be unavailable until documentation is provided.

Confidentiality: All information provided on this form is confidential and will not be entered into any shared database. Only staff of the provider of housing or rental assistance who are evaluating the request for VAWA protections have access to this form, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to the program participant in writing in a time-limited release; or (ii) otherwise required by applicable law.
